At the Salvation Army hall next Saturday night, March 25th, is a "pound meeting." Will all our soldiers and friends bear this in mind and come along? A good large crowd for the benefit of the officers' quarters. All are invited.

Joseph Drew of East Warren was taken yesterday to the state hospital for the insane at Waterbury by Constable W. E. Dana of Warren. Mr. Drew is the old man who it is alleged recently set fire to the buildings of Gerald Campbell of East Warren.

Mrs. Mary A. Palmer is confined in her room in the B. D. Thomas block. Dr. Goodrich is attending her. She was intending to take a vacation but was detained on account of the sickness and death of her niece, Blanche Craig, of Giantville. She has not been able to leave her room since the funeral.

The prompt sugar-makers in this vicinity have their orchards tapped and are now engaged in making the first maple sugar of the season. The last two days have been particularly favorable for a run of sap. There was a smart run yesterday, and the first new syrup was brought into the city.

The local branch of the Central Vermont railway is an unusually busy place at present, according to reports, says the Montpelier Journal. On an average one hundred cars are being handled daily, at present, and on a recent day 127 were taken care of in a single day. Large numbers of these cars contain shipments of granite that are to be used previous to Memorial day. One engine and one crew of men handle the freight business that comes and goes through Montpelier Junction.

Apparently the time has come when every man, rich or poor, can appear well dressed on the hustling streets of Barre. By referring to A. A. Smith & Brother's advertisement in another column of this paper you will find many useful articles at prices that the poorest poor can afford to pay. Shirts of the 75c, $1.00 and $1.25 grades at 29c, shoes at $1.98, reduced from the $2.50 to $3.00 lines, and other articles accordingly. Have you found out about the $20.00 suit they are to give away? If not you should lose no time in finding out about it. Read their advertisement carefully. You will find it on the 8th page of this paper.

Grand concert at Barre opera house, Tuesday, March 28th, comprising Scotch, English and Irish melodies, humorous sketches, humorous readings, etc. Admission 25, 50 and 75 cents. The entertainers are Miss Tina Crawford and Miss Agnes Hyde. The Belfast Times says: Miss Tina Crawford is a splendid vocalist. Her rendering of "Come Back to Erin," and "Eileen Alannah" could not be surpassed. So enthusiastic did the audience become over this favorite, that she was forced to respond to a double encore. Her rendering of "The Dear Little Shamrock" and "Kathleen Mavourneen" fairly melted the hearts of her hearers. The Boston Herald says Miss Agnes Hyde is a lady of more than ordinary histrionic talent, a favorite with her audience and met with a warm greeting.

The Daylight Store

Have You $5.00 to Spare?

If so, you can make someone very happy by buying them one of these Garments. In seven days or one week we will have all of our WINTER GARMENTS packed away. Until then you can have the greatest bargains that this store ever offered. Furs the same way. Do not ask for these garments after that time. If we are asked to get them out again we will have to get cost. Now they are at only a part of cost.

LADIES' COATS, all this season's garments, in correct cloths, well lined and made by best tailors, that were rightly priced at $12.50, $15.00, $16.50 and $17.00. Your choice during this one week for only $5.00. These Coats are not too heavy to wear for the next six weeks and will be worth double the price for Fall wear. If such values interest you call now.

LADIES' FURS will be packed away at the same time. See what $2.50 and $5.00 will buy. Can be worn on cool evenings all Summer.

You will not realize the real values of these bargains until you have seen them. On paper they seem like all advertising. These goods will surprise you.

SPRING OVERCOATS

If you are an early morning bird you've already felt the thin, chilly air. The season suggests a Spring Overcoat and every good dresser will own one. Gray is a good color, tan is the fashion limit, but quiet, dignified style allows a score or more of genteel toned mixtures that have preference with the very best dressers. Needn't bring to exceed $10.00, $15.00 or $20.00 along with you. At any of these prices you can secure about all your heart can desire in a Spring Overcoat.

Will You Do Your Cooking on a Gas Range Next Summer?

To all people who will put in a Gas Cooking Range during the months of March and April, 1905, the Gas Company will furnish them with gas for its use entirely FREE OF CHARGE for one month after the Range is installed. This will give the people an opportunity to become accustomed to the use of the Range at the expense of the Company, while the Company will be able to keep their men employed during these dull months to the advantage of all, as after May 1st the Company will be especially busy in extending their street mains and making other permanent improvements. Liberal terms will be made to all purchasers of Ranges when necessary. Call at the office, No. 213 North Main Street, opposite Depot Square, where you will always find a full supply of Ranges and Gas E fixtures, or drop a postal to the Company and a representative will call on you.
